Mrs Rogers Message

This week we have had our first ever production at the Glassbox Theatre as part of our LAMDA and drama offer at Thames View. Mrs Flynn and Miss Bailey coordinated a magnificent show, with children of all ages performing. The show, called Thames View Television Station presents: TV Live gave us a re-cap of all of our best loved television shows over the last few decades. I enjoyed the performance greatly, as I know our parents and governors did. We thank Mrs Flynn and Miss Bailey for all of their hard work. Our next big production will be Matilda the Musical, at the GlassBox Theatre on the 12th December, so please save the date.

This week, some of our juniors played in the MYG Netball tournament at Rainham School for Girls. They have been practicing in Netball club after school with Mrs Kirk and represented the school so well, with such great behaviour. Next week, we have some of our year 4 children representing Thames View at MYG Quick Sticks Hockey on Thursday 2nd May. If your child is attending this, you will receive a letter from Miss Bailey.

Year 3 will be having a Stone Age workshop in school next Friday, 3rd May, to further explore their new topic. This always bring the learning to life.

This Friday (26th) is our PTA Break the Rules Day. The PTA do a wonderful job of funding our school projects, most recently our big Arty Party project which allowed years 1,2,3 and 4 to create sculptures for the school which will be here for years to come and which emphasise the important characters from our House Authors. We would be grateful for as many children to take part as possible and if you can spare a donation, however big or small, we are grateful to you. All funds go back to the children and the school through the PTA.

I hope you all have a lovely weekend and stay safe, Mrs Rogers.
